and the plaintiff by his attorney filed his declaration of State of Kentucky in the Circuit Court Montgomery County July 1st 1823

James A. Crotchet by attorney complains of Phil J. Kniflet, George L. Ryd & Son Johnstone who have been summoned to answer him of a plea that they owe to him the sum of three thousand two hundred and three $3000 Dollars which they owe to him fully claim from them.
Now that on George R. St's opinion as to whom a real posse has been taken before the filing of this declaration. It is to be noted in the 14th day of September 1839 did the County Court made his certain promissory note in writing by which he promised to pay to Phil J. Kniflet or order four months after the date thereof at the branch of the Pleasure Bank of Louisville at Clarksville the sum of three thousand two hundred & three $3000 Dollars Value Recd. and then and there delivered the said promissory note to the said Phil J. Kniflet and which is now due for and of him to the court. The date whereof is the day before aforesaid. and the said Phil J. Kniflet the maker of the said promissory note has made payable after and to me on the day after aforesaid I delivered the said promissory note in writing his own proper hand and name being thereunto subscribed by which he or any other contrary thereto then unpaid to be paid to the said George L. Ryd & Son Johnstone who after wards took it on the day before last aforesaid at the County Court in writing delivered the same to the plaintiff and then & thereafter was the contrary thereto unpaid to be paid to the said plaintiff which said several judgments and now due for and of him to the court by which the maker of the said promissory note was exonerated and directed to pay the contrary of said promissory note to the plaintiff and the plaintiff and the plaintiff in fact avers that afterwards when the money on said promissory note became due & payable according to the time & effect thereof turned on the 17th day of January 1810 in the County aforesaid the said promissory note endorsed as aforesaid was exhibited & shown for payment at the Branch of the Planters Bank of Kentucky at Clarksville when the same was made payable payment thereof was then there duly demanded but neither the maker of said promissory note nor the endorser nor any one else on their behalf did or would then & there or at any other time or place pay the said sum of money called due for in said promissory note or any part thereof and pay ment thereof less than three duly demanded & paid the said sum of money so remaining due unpaid as aforesaid and payment refused after demand the said promissory note being then and there turned on the day and year last aforesaid and at the County aforesaid presented for sum payment of all which the aforesaid then and there had notice and by means thereof became liable to pay the said plaintiff the said sum of three thousand two hundred & three thousand dollars due on said promissory note and the further sum of five dollars cost of presenting and giving notice of the same But the said endorsee nor either of them have not as yet paid the said sum of money or any part thereof to the plaintiff, but they have each one of them wholly failed & refused to pay the sum or any part thereof to the plaintiff to the plaintiff among three hundred dollars and therefore to sue
